

3rd Grade Choice Board #2 (April 20, 2020)

Below are some optional and ungraded activities to help your child to continue to grow and learn!

	Monday (Language Arts/Writing)	Tuesday (Social Studies)	Wednesday (Math)	Thursday (Science)
Today's Lesson	Main Idea and Details	Social Studies Lesson	3.4b Solve Multiplication and Division Word Problems	Scientific Method video
Task 1	Pause the lesson video at 22 minutes. Write what you think is the main idea and 3 details of "Food and Drink". Press play to see the answer!	Tell at least 2 landforms from each continent we talked about from MEMORY	Multiplication and Division Word Problems Directions for solving multiplication and division problems	Learn about the importance of hand washing with this fun experiment! Remember to use the scientific method! Magic Finger Experiment
Task 2	Read a nonfiction book on Myon, Epic, or one at home and then do the following activity 1. Write what the main idea of a section, chapter, or page. 2. Write three supporting details.	Blank Map Copy and paste this link into your search bar to open the blank map. THEN label the three continents and 3 landforms from each continent on this map (don't lose this map you will need it next week as well)	Moby Max - work through your math assignments -or- Prodigy	Use this fun experiment to practice using the scientific method, Gummy Bear experiment! Gummy bear experiment
Task 3	For added challenge please check out Mrs. Crown's activity on Word Ladders.	Get on Epic and pick a nonfiction book about one of the three continents you want to learn more about and	Moby Max - fact fluency -or- Math Magician - math fact fluency practice	Create a poster on why you think Science is important. Include information and pictures

Word Ladder Activity

read it. Write one cool fact about what you learned to send to your teacher!

that demonstrate why you believe Science should be studied and is relevant to everyday life.